“ Grady and I were friends and coworkers at the chalk mine. I've never met a kinder or more genuinely gentle person in my life. I pray that God comforts his family in their loss. The sun will shine a little less with Grady's passing. Dennis Peavy

“ Grady was married to my lovely cousin and over the years became a meaningful member of my raising. His love for his music made him my muse and I grew to love and respect Grady. I am grief stricken at his loss but comforted by knowing that he was prepared to meet his maker with his head held up high. I will miss Grady as Will multitudes of others. Rest In Peace “Baby Boy”, you are sitting on the right hand of the lord, playing sweet music on your Gibson Tal Farlow.
