“ My baby brother was the best. He took care of me while our parents had to go to work early along with Jerry helping. He was there for me during some of my worst times and loved me anyway. I thank God for him and he is in God's hands now. He will be missed by all of us but we will never forget him. I ask for God's blessings and guidance for us all who love him. Love you brother from your baby sister.
