“ I was shocked to learn of Greg's passing. I met him when he was in Erie, PA visiting a friend of his. He was such a nice, friendly individual. I picked a blue candle because of the blue plaid shirt he was wearing the day I met him. He will be missed.

“ I'm sorry for your loss. At a time like this it's hard to find true comfort. What has helped me is found in the Bible. At Isaiah 25:8 where it says" Death will be swallowed up forever and tears wiped from our faces forever". That will be a wonderful time. Again sorry for your loss.##imported-begin##Leslie##imported-end##

“ Dear Kathy,

*I had the pleasure of working with Greg in therapy at Oconee Regional Hospital...I never had a patient speak to me in (I think) French! He was so much fun! I so admired him for his spunk and spirit that oozed from him in his wheelchair...I remember him telling of the time when he was at Stone Mountain watching I think the Laser show...anyway...I know that he rolled down a hill with a man who insulted another man in a wheelchair... There was nothing that could hold this man back! He was precious! I wish I could own a tenth of his conviction! He will be missed...
