“ *The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want;
He makes me lie down in green pastures.
He leads me beside still waters;
He restores my soul.
He leads me in the paths of righteousness
for his name sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil;
for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff,
they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of my enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow
me all the days of my life;
And I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

“ Dear Sharon,

Dan and I were deeply saddened to learn of the death of your father. Although we cannot be with you tomorrow, please know that our thoughts and prayers will be with you, your mother and your entire family during this difficult time. I pray, too, that you may have moments of unexpected peace and joy during your grief as you look back on the life and legacy of your Dad.

Blessings and peace,
