“ Harold Graham was my coworker in Galveston, Texas in 1980. We were Customs Patrol Officers back then. I remember he was always saying a blessing over us but I did not understand it back then. I now do. He was always very respectful. I remember one day he said he was quitting to go into the Salvation Army. Back then we all thought he was crazy. How was he going to support his family we thought. But I see he became an agent and retired as one just like myself. However, I know that I know I will see him in heaven. May the Lord bless his family and keep them in all His ways. Amen
