“ Papa Harold was a very good grandpa. When he came to see us he always made me laugh with his daffy duck voice and his train voice. He also loved life and everything about it. I loved him. I know he is not hurting anymore. He did not know he would be celebrating christmas with his mom, his dad and evrybody that has went to heaven before him that he loved. I will miss him very much. He called me a week before he died. We talked for a couple of minutes like nornal. We got caught up on evrything that we wanted to say. I did not realize that would be the last time I would speak to him. I can only hope, I will see him someday until then I will miss him. carlee##imported-begin##Carlee Cannon##imported-end##

“ Sarah, Joey and family,
Please accept my condolences for your loss. Harold was truly a good guy who, as others have mentioned, enjoyed going to the park and watching the kids play baseball. I saw Harold about a month ago and, as usual, the conversation centered around the Dawgs. I'm sure he'll be looking down on New Year's Day, cheering them on to victory. May God be with you during this difficult time.##imported-begin##Mike Humphrey##imported-end##
