“ Uncle Harry, I love and miss you much already! I am so thankful I was able to spend them times I have these past few months. I loved being your nurse LOL N would do it all over again if I could. Thanks for always helping me out when I needed you when I lived in Warner Robins! You are such a blessing in so many ways to our family. I thank you for helping me witness a miracle by making it to church last Sunday! I'll never forget you clapping your hands and singing, you said they sounded like angels singing the halleluiah song. You were so much like my dad and it hurts me your gone! I just know that you and daddy and the rest of the family are up there waiting on us to make it through life. I heard this song and it gave me peace in my heart, "I'll see you on the other side
If I make it
And it might be a long hard ride
But I'm gonna take it
Sometimes it seems I don't have a prayer
Let the weather take me anywhere
But I know I wanna go
Where the streets are gold
Cause you'll be there"" as for Lynn, Amy, Matt, and Mark you know we are always here for you if you need anything or to talk..i love you all alot...and so glad you are apart of my life!##imported-begin##April Taylor##imported-end##

“ Matthew, Mark,
I want to say I am so sorry for the loss of your father! I will never know what you two are going through right now, as everyone hurts differently! Pain is not easy to put into words, just as there are no words of comfort right now. But one day you will smile again. You may be involved in an activity, feel the wind brush your shoulders or ruffle through your hair, feel the warmth of the sunshine surround you or just feel the sky looking down upon you, this will be your Dad telling you "Way to go son", giving you a hug to say "I love you" or just watching over you with all his love and he did love you both alot!###imported-begin##SUSAN##imported-end##

“ Amy, so sorry for your loss. I know no amount of words will fill the void you have. I do know you were your Daddy's heart! You always have and will be Daddy's Girl". That's something noone can take away! Tucked deep inside his heart was your special place. And Lilly...girl, do I need say more! That is his pride and joy! I wish Harry could be here to show her his love and give her wisdom as he has done so many others! That is what hurts my heart the most! He had so much love for her! Whenever you are outdoors and happen to see a yellow butterfly, that is your daddy walking with you. Again I am so sorry for your loss!##imported-begin##Unknown##imported-end##

“ Uncle Harry, you will be missed so much! Can't begin to say how much! Will miss all those long talks about life and life situations. Your input and advice about these life lessons were appreciated and something we can carry with us through our daily walk here. Knowing that you will be walking with God now, helps to ease our pain a little. Hope you can now find your "Blue Angel" because your work on earth is done and "that's your job" now. God shared you with us and now he wants you to help complete his work there. He has chosen a good one! and "that's my final answer." Love you and miss you so much already!##imported-begin##SUSAN & ROBERT BARKER##imported-end##

“ DAD- I will miss you and all of OUR talks each and every day. I looked up at the stars at heaven for the past 2 nights and felt peace knowing you are A-OK.
When I opened my insurance class test results yesterday showing I passed another one I wanted so bad to call you on the phone to tell you but then I realized you already knew! I heard you say "go girl!" I promised you I would take care of your "Baby Girl" and by doing that it helps me to get through this.
The first time she is ready to go to that swingset you will be holding little Lilly's hand just like you said you wanted to but on the other side will be Jesus holding your hand.
I always have and always will be Daddy's girl.
I Love You Dad. Amy###imported-begin##Amy Taylor Stanley###imported-end##
