“ When we were young, we looked to our parents for all our needs and care and when we are older they look to us for the same. Jan you are a wonderful daughter who fulfilled her duties to both her parents with grace and dignity. You along with her nurses provided Hazel with all the love and care she deserved. When I saw you Friday I was amazed at what a kind, loving and mature young woman you have become. I know what a trial it is to care for a sick parent and I also know it always falls to the daughter to take care of everything in times like these and I want you to know that I think your mother was a very lucky woman to have a child like you. My prayer is that God give you peace to know you did everyting He wanted you to do and that your mother was blessed to have been loved by you.##imported-begin##Loretta##imported-end##

“ Jan my heart is broken for you. I am so sorry that Aunt Hazel is gone. You are my best friend and I love you very much. We both know your mama was a good mother. She loved her children and took great care of me too. She was always so concerned for us and if we were okay. She was always good to me and I should know I almost lived at your house. I loved her very much & she always made me feel good when she said I was born on her birthday, so that made me special. She was a special lady and an aunt I adored. We used to have a lot of laughs ... sometimes she would scold us, but she always ended up laughing with us. We had the best vacations together, we would aggravate her so bad sometimes, but most of the time she just laughed it off. She could be so funny and she made the best pimento cheese sandwiches ever. Jan always know your mama loved you so very much and everyone who truly knew ya'll knew you loved her very much too. Always be comforted in knowing that you took wonderful care of her. You were her sole link to everything and she could always count on you. You took special care to see that all her needs were fulfilled and you are a wonderful daughter. Know that you did everything Papa / Uncle Sam would have wanted and more, he would be so proud of you. They are now together once again. You were always there for her....every time we talked you always spoke of her. You found strength in your love for her and let nothing stand in your way in doing what was best for her. Your mama left through you a legacy of love and compassion. I pray that God will keep His arms wrapped about you and comfort you. God Bless you and may He calm you and give you peace. Much love to you and Mark. I will see you soon.##imported-begin##Ginger##imported-end##
