“ *Dear Marie and Debbie,
I know how you will miss your mother. We are so fortunate to have had mothers like we did. They were very, very special. I miss mother to this day and probably always will. She and I ,as adults, were best friends. And I know how close both of you were with your mother. Please know that I am here if you need me. Marie, you know, all you need do is call. I love you very much and would do anything for you. Beverly sends her sympathy. She cannot come down this week. I will never forget the day that she and I visited your mother after mother died. Our mothers had a very special friendship. I am sure they are visiting now, remembering old times.*

Love and many prayers.
