“ Please accept my condolences on the loss of your dear loved one. Take comfort in knowing that our heavenly Creator will soon remove all pain, sorrow, and death forever! Yes, we have the hope of a resurrection here on paradise earth. May this hope as found in Revelation 21:3,4 and John 5:28,29 be of comfort as you gain the strength and inner peace to cope with the days ahead. www.jw.org

“ The loss of this dear friend is the most horrible of blows to us, and to ALL his other friends, of which there are SO many. Hector brought light and life into any room he entered. We shared many and many more a close-fought game of pool, both as opponents, and (preferably for both of us) as partners. We always looked forward to his smile, and the hug that always awaited - that smile that was there from the first time we met until the last time I saw him.

Goodbye my dear friend. May you enter His Kingdom to open and welcoming arms - for you surely earned and will experience exactly that. Let those of us left behind find peace in the knowledge that you are in that most wonderful of places, and now the only pain you carry is the pain of our sadness. - D & C

“ Offering sincere condolences to the family. I am so very sorry for your loss. Our Heavenly father in His word the Bible calls death an enemy (1Cor. 15:26) which He promises in the very near future to do away with (Rev. 21:4,5)At that time no one will ever get sick (Isaiah 33:24)and there will be a bringing back to life instead of losing (John 5:28,29) Please allow these words to be of comfort to you and give you hope.
