“ Chip, Beth and families....so very sorry about your mother. I always thought she was such a lively and beautiful lady....didn't remember until I read the obituary that she was the "Helen" of Helen's Dress shop....I was in a fashion bridal show back in 1971/72 and her store was the one that outfitted me. Also my first pair of jeans were purchased there! I am glad now to recall that memory. Please know you all are in my thoughts and prayers. May God's grace surround you in your time of grief and give you comfort and peace. What a good fight she put up and now Heaven has another Angel. Debbie

“ My first charge account was at Helen's Dress Shop when I was about 13 years old. I loved going to visit Mrs. Adams and Mrs. Frazier. They even "covered" for me several times when I was supposed to be at work at the jewelry store and Miss Minnie was looking for me. Two fine ladies I will NEVER forget. RIP Mrs. Frazier. My thoughts and prayers are with the family during this difficult time. May God bless you all.
