“ Some of my fondest days when coming to Lake Sinclair were meeting part of the Hood family. Greg was actually working at Twin Bridges Marina and through him we met his parents , CB and Helen Hood. Visiting with Helen was a joy and both she and CB were so friendly and welcomed us to the area. Later we met Bruce. Years have passed and Greg opened his landscaping business and became a Firefighter. Didn't see Helen and CB as much as we moved farther from the marina but on occasion would run into them. A great family to know. Prayers to the boys and their families during this time.
