“ They broke the mold when they made Ms. Helen. She was a one of a kind, special lady. Ms. Helen will always hold a place in our hearts. She was one true Southern Belle that will never be forgotten by those who knew her. Ms. Helen is at home now. I'm sure that Wally has found her already. We will always love you and remember you. God bless dear lady!##imported-begin##James and Cathy Herring##imported-end##

“ Helen was one of the ladies who helped my mother Annie Combs decorate Pierce Memorial UMC for my wedding to J. B. Kennedy in June 1944. This is during the war and there was no florist shop, so we used manolia blooms and queen Anne's lace. Now all these ladies have gone to the great beyond.##imported-begin##Katherine Combs Kennedy Bray##imported-end##
