“ Helen was a dear and gracious lady. The first time I met her was the day she married my cousin Carl. She was indeed a beautiful bride. Shortly after they married, Carl had to go for some training on his new job so Helen stayed with my family for several weeks. We so enjoyed her time with us. About three months ago she called me and we had such a nice phone conversation discussing family and old times past. She will surely be missed that those who loved her here on earth but will be welcomed with open arms when she is reunited with Carl.
