“ Marie and family, Gary and I are so sorry to hear about Joey. Bless his heart he fought the good fight in faith and finished his race just like Apostle Paul taught us in the Bible! Joey was a sweet man, one of few words, but you could see the love he had for people in his eyes. He was also a great cook!!! Any time we had a dinner at church he was always willing to cook something good to eat and it was good! I know Joey is missed already, but let me tell you, he’s in the presence of his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ walking on streets of gold and no more sickness for him!!! I’m so glad we had the opportunity to meet Joey, it was an honor to have called him friend! Marie you and your family will all be in our prayers. We love each of you. Love in Christ,
