“ Henry was a good friend to me and my husband for years. He built two decks on our house and a bridge to the pond. He wouldn't accept any pay. We only had to buy the lumber. He always had a smile and he seemed to be glad to see us whenever we would meet up at the post office or Lowe's. He will truly be missed by us, John and Becky Martin

“ I called him papa Henry. He was like the coolest spiritual grandfather anyone could ask for. I used to love it when he would get on a Holy Ghost roll in church. The love and compassion he gave people was a testimony on its own. His smile would light up a room and his laughter reminded me of Burl Ives. We even talked about that a time or two. He was a jolly ole man who will be missed by a community who loved him fully. R.I.H papa Henry. The love is real!!!

Around 1972 or 73 Henry managed a liquor store at Hatcher Square Mall and Bob Massey owned "Bob's Bakery" also at the mall. I was introduced to Henry by Bob's wife, Kathy Massey. Very soon after meeting him Henry left the liquor store in an hurry and came back a few days latter a changed man Someone from his past had led him to the forgiveness and redemption of Jesus Christ. He was a changed man that never forgot that great gift of the undeserved but real forgiveness of sins and the complete work of redemption. He was a funny guy, full of stories that he told as true but sometimes left you with the slightest feeling that they might have had a few "Embellishments" added. We moved away and over time we didn't see him much at all but kept up with him thru Kathy Massey and Becky Martin. When I would rarely run into him we would try to catch up on everyone, laugh and cry and talk about getting together again with Bob and Kathy. He was unique, loving and so funny. Henry, you will always be part of my wonderful memories. Love, Jana Gilliland (Tanner).
