“ To Doodles family, My name is Ned Agee . I was born in ocilla Ga.--- My family moved to St. Petersburg Florida when I was 12 years old. I was about 2 years older than Doodle but we were great baseball friends. Doodle was always the take charge guy getting us all together on the empty lot just across from the Methodist Church and behind Alice Simms house(who was a great ball player)( I think her mom is presently the most elderly person in Ocilla at 100 years or so old. Doodle generally brought the equipment,balls ,bats and a cherished,almost holy catchers chest piece and we all signed our names on it. I think Jimmy Dozier also played with us. Doodle was also a great guy to know as his dad was part owner of a semi -pro baseball team which I think played out of Tifton. So a lot of us got to go to games in other cities-- man were those long ballgames. I remember even Doodle , our leader would wish the opposing team would hit a home run so we could go home( egad we all gasp, even though we all agreed with him in silence) My wife and I were just at a mini-reunion recently of Ocilla people in Greenville S.C. Amelia and Danny paulk, Tillie Willis and her husband and Jan Henderson Mixon and her husband Ed. We were remembering the old days and of course we all remembered Doodle.Please accept my condolences. Sincerely, Ned Agee###imported-begin###Ned Agee###imported-end###
