“ LeeAnn,

I am so sorry to hear of the death of your father. In the days ahead remember those special times you had with him because those memories will bring you great comfort. It is comforting to know that you will see him again some day. Until that day he will be your own special angel looking out for his little girl and her wonderful family just like he always did.

Your BHS family is here to give you love and support whenever you need it. Let us know what you need.##imported-begin##Sandy Mitts##imported-end##

“ LeeAnn and Jeanette,

Dean and I do not have the words to express our sympathies and our love for your families. We are still in shock, just as you. Please let us know if there is anything that either of us can do to help you. Just remember that Howard is in a far better place than we are and that one day you will be reunited.
God Bless You and surround you with His Love through these times.##imported-begin##Dean and Sara Jane##imported-end##

“ LeeAnn, Marc and Kati,
Words fail to express how deeply saddened I was to hear of Mr. Howards sudden death. So many things unsaid because he was taken so suddenly from us. Just know that your dad loved you with all his heart and that I am better for having known him. In the quiet moments, when the hurt is hard to bear may you find comfort in the memories that he left behind that will live in your heart forever. "Death leaves a heartache no one can heal, Love leaves memories no one can steal." Please know that I am her for you, you are in my thought and prayers.
