“ I am sorry for your loss. I remember Howard from school and working with him at Woolworth's, and for the short time when we all went on bowling trips to Macon and Dublin. When I think of Howard I think of a quote made by Charles H. Spurgeon. He could have been talking about Howard.

"A good character is the best tombstone. Those who loved you and were helped by you will remember you when forget-me-nots have withered. Carve your name on hearts, not on marble." That is the way I remember Howard.##imported-begin##Butch Lavender##imported-end##

“ To all our wonderful friends, I would like to say thank you so very much for your prayers during this very hard time for our family. There are no words to express the pain and loss we feel, but the one thing that gives me so much comfort and yes even joy is that my wonderful husband is now so very happy and with his God. It is hard for me to explain without sounding like I don't miss and want him home with me, but I would never want him back in the pain and agony he went through. God has blessed me by knowing Howard is whole and having a high ole time with all the friends and family that have gone before him. And who knows, he may even use that beautiful voice of his to tell the story of Jesus's birth to the little ones up there. Thank you God for the blessings of your love in sending me Howard to love for almost forty years and I ask for your continued blessings for my family and friends. God I ask your special blessings on our friends that are sick and battling illness and heartaches of their own. Again I thank all of you for your love and continued support. God bless you and yours on this special time of rejoicing in the birth of our Jesus Christ. Love you all. Grace Sessions###imported-begin##Grace sessions###imported-end##

“ Howard and Grace, We love you both so much We are going to miss you Howard. You always brought so much fun to the Friday night suppers with "the Young folks". All the work that you did at First Christian Church, especially the Thursday night College dinners (goood food and even better conversation). We will take good care of Grace. Rest in Peace !!!!

“ Mr. Howard was like a second dad to me in so many ways. Even though through the years life had seperated the families a bit, he was a big part of my life. I have known him all my life and some of my fondest memories are from the weekends spent at his house. I remember the oldies being played and mom and dad and Howard and Grace dancing it up right there in the living room or the card games until they just couldn't play anymore. Us kids would be playing in the bedrooms or outside running the neighborhood. Lets not forget the awesome cookouts we would have over there. No telling what would be cooking on the grill. This was my childhood. You, Mr. Howard, Grace, Paula and James..are such big parts in my childhood. More than you could ever know. I love you all and will never forget!!##imported-begin##Rhonda##imported-end##
