“ I can recall some great times with Eddie and Inez. Eddie died on 15th of January 2000. He went so fast once he got sick. They called it CJD, but we will never know for sure. Inez never seemed to have another good day after Eddie died. She changed and things were never the same.

I pray that she is at peace now as the last few years was such uphappy ones.

We will think about the both of you from time to time and wish we could all be together one more time.

We love you,
