“ The Lord has took one find dear sweet woman home to be with him as one of his angels. Definately an angel. She was like a mother to all that knew her. I remember her from 50 years ago that her Roscoe was always out every time the doors open and gather children up to take them to church. A lot of good memories their and will never be forgotten from this family.I hadn't seen Ms. Harrison in a while or so but I want forget the last time I did see her with Pat. Unable to get out of the car, I made a point to go and visit and the last words she said to me "I Love You". I'll always cherish them words and memories of this dear sweet lady.My prayers are for each and everyone in this family. God Be with you all at this time.##imported-begin##Eloise Griffin##imported-end##
