What a great man he was. Mr. Jim was my witness when I was sworn in as Magistrate Judge years ago and was always there if I needed to ask any question. Mr. Jim and I got to talk again while having treatment at the clinic. He will be missed, but we will see him again in heaven.

“ It was our honor, privilege, and great fortune to maintain a law practice with him for over 21 years. Jim was a man who enjoyed life and all its beauty, and who adored his family above all. He taught us so much over the years including putting family first while always standing ready to give back to the community that gives to him. He was an avid UGA fan and proud of it. We missed him terribly when he retired, and will have to learn to go on without him. He bravely fought a hard and difficult battle against a disease that would not show mercy; though, he never complained all these years. We are better people for having known him; none like him will ever come again. Rest in peace, partner.##imported-begin##Alan and Shelly Thrower##imported-end##
