“ Sally, when I heard today of Jack passing my heart dropped. This news saddened me more than I can express. In all the years I worked for to the telephone company I have never ever met anyone like Jack. He is was and still is one of the most unique people I have had the pleasure of knowing. I can still remember him calling me at my office about his phone service. He would never be mad just so crazy with his wit and humor. He would say something like "just checking to see if I paid my bill since all my phones are out." I will truly miss him and the world is not quite the same tonight.

“ I very sorry to hear of Larkin's passing. He came from a great family and had a deep love for the South. I was two years behind him in high school and only had occasional contact with him afterwards. Larkin was always confident, pleasant to be with and had something interesting to say. He was the guy that was always a half step ahead of everyone else. I regret not seeing more of him.

“ Jack took me under his wing when i transferred to Mercer in 1967. Not sure how he became my "Big Brother" but he taught me a lot of things like how to spit shine m black tassel loafers. He carried me to the shirt outlet where we bought white shirts for about two bucks and to a tux rental store that sold used tuxs. I bought my first and last tux and he bought one for about twenty dollars. We sure looked sharp at Convivium! Great wit and oh so smart-- and sarcastic.

“ I did Jack's hair for approximately 35 years and never had a dull moment when he came to the salon! There will never be another Jack Daniels.
He enjoyed every minute of a shampoo. Moaned and groaned the whole time! Love it and I loved him. Rest In Peace my friend. You'll be missed. Prayers for you Sally and the girls. He loved you so.

“ Jack was one of the most incredible, and unforgettable person I have ever known. Everyone loved him dearly. I am saddened for all of you in his family and for all of you who were the closest of friends. He will be greatly missed, but I believe he made such a mark on so many lives that he will not be forgotten. His smile was contagious, and he always joked with me as he did others. We are all better people having known Jack. May God bless you and bring you comfort during this time of great loss through the fellowship and love of family and friends. Something that might apply, "Be gentle with those who mourn, and if you are the one who mourns, be gentle with yourself." Praying for each of you, God's healing and gentler days ahead.
