“ Kendall & Andy, I've never met you, but your Ruby is buried below my father and each time I go there, my heart and prayers go to you. I cannot tell you the many times I've been grieved for your loss. I'm certain that there are so many like me touched by your pain. There are answers we will never have to questions we will never stop asking. I only know that He is forever faithful. I could not have children and my father wanted to be a grandfather so badly. At 40 I finally had a baby and then another and before he could enjoy them, he was gone to cancer. My grief continues today as I see all they have accomplished and he missed it. My trust is that from that heavenly gate, he sees. You are loved by so many!
