

Jake Maddox

February 10, 1938 - June 16, 2019

Mr. Jake Arnold Maddox, 81, passed away on June 16, 2019. A funeral service will be held on Wednesday, June 19, 2019 at 1:30 in the Williams Funeral Home Chapel in Milledgeville with Rev. Bill Kitchen, Rev. Doug Atkins, and Rev. Jason Jordan officiating. Burial will follow at the Georgia Veterans Memorial Cemetery.

The family will greet friends at Williams Funeral Home on Wednesday from 12:30 until the service.

Mr. Maddox was a native of Brewton, GA and moved to Milledgeville in 1965 after serving in the Army in Germany. He worked in the Dental Lab at Central State Hospital and enjoyed farming and fishing in his spare time before and after retirement. He served as a deacon at Mosleyville Baptist Church and Hardwick Baptist Church and was a member of the Men's prayer group. One of his greatest joys was visiting shut-ins and nursing home residents. He also delivered Meals On Wheels. He dearly loved his family and enjoyed being Papa and most recently a Great Papa. He was preceded in death by his parents, Jake Herman Maddox and Chloe Klepper Maddox; his brother, Donald Maddox; and sisters, Katherine Jordan and Mae Jean Alford. He is survived by his wife, Nell Young Maddox of Milledgeville; daughter, Rhonda (Miles) Whipple of Milledgeville; grandchildren, Kristen Whipple (Jacob) Parsons, Kaitlin Whipple (Tristan) Tollison, Kellie Whipple; and great grandchild, Asher Jake Parsons.

For those who wish, memorial contributions may be made to Samaritan's Purse International and Hardwick Baptist Church.

“ Nell and Rhonda, Our sympathies at Arnold's passing. Gina told us. I knew Arnold in Brewton in the 1950's, when we visited there, and in San Antonio when he went into the military and learned a skill that stood him well for the remainder of his working life. Nell, I still remember (but only vaguely) accompanying you and baby Rhonda to Milledgeville (in about 1960) in that beautiful green and white Ford to pick up Arnold. Arnold, a kind man who left us with fond memories. Thankfully, we will all be together again one day.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. In the early 60's I lived across the street from you all in East Dublin (Forest Hills subdivision)...Rhonda was a toddler. I also remember seeing y'all at Mosleyville when I visited there with my grandparents (Tennis and Alma Frazier). I think y'all lived on Frazier Drive near them for a while...I may be wrong. You all will be in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Mr. Jake was a kind man always giving of his time to help others. I remember him helping my sister Sharon with her son Christopher after he was released from the hospital and could not go back to school. He volunteered his time to sit with him and the school nurse so he could catch up on his studies, so Sharon could work. He will be greatly missed, they don't make them like Mr. Jake anymore. So sorry for your loss.
