“ Please accept my deepest sympathies for your loss. The lost of a love one is the most painful experience we have in life. There is a void that cannot be filled. Rest assured the Bible promises we will hold them again and enjoy their smiling faces forever. It is God's purpose that no one dies ever again and everyone live on earth in Paradise. God never wanted anyone to die but to live happy healthy lives forever on earth. We have to exercise faith in his Son, Jesus Christ, to gain these blessings. God gives us his Word so we can gain comfort now and have hope for the future.##imported-begin##Marquell##imported-end##

“ Jessica and family,

We are so sorry for your loss. Our prayers and thoughts are with you all now and in the days to come. Over the many years of our friendship, I have seen and heard of your enjoyment of times spent with your dad. May you cherish these fond memories of time spent together. I pray you have the peace and comfort that only God can give.

With love,

“ My first memory of James(Foots) was the touchdown that he scored to beat Screven Co. in Sylvania for a 7-0 win. My last memory is of the trip to Tunica that we both happened to be on. He told us about his illness that he had just found out about.He was upbeat about it and I heard from others, that he was upbeat all the way through. He was a great person who will be missed.##imported-begin##Ron May##imported-end##

“ We are so sorry to here about your lost. We loved James.

One of our fondest memories was in 1973 when we had the big snow. We walked from our house to James's and found him on top of his house shoveling snow (10" deep). He feared his house was not designed for the extra weight so he was getting the snow off. The roof did not warp as he feared, so we guess he did nothing wrong.

Another time he stayed home by himself with Jessica on a Sunday morning. Jessica soiled her pants, and this was a first change for James. He put a bandana over his nose and changed her. We have laughed about this for years.

Every time we see James we think about these two things.

James was a kind person, and we know you will miss him.

With our love and sympathy,

Al and Uldena Denton
