“ To wife Saralyn and family, I offer my prayers in the death of your dear husband/father James. My relationship with him goes back to the days of Midway School, where we were classmates. It continued as we constituted the first graduation class (1957) of the Baldwin County High School, Milledgeville. James greatly valued our "signal honor class" as he worked tirelessly in preparation for the group reunions that we enjoyed. For several years, he headed up the memorial part of the reunion program in which we honored each deceased class member. I shall miss James but give thanks that our paths mingled through the formative years as students. Sincerely, Dr. Charles Wm. Brown (CW), Maryville, TN.

“ Stan, Patty and family, We send our condolences to you and your family. I have known James and your grandparents since I was a boy. Time passes by but there is always a sadness I feel when someone I've know for such a time finishes this life's journey. We send our prayers and will have all of your family in our thoughts and prayers in the days ahead.
