“ I will never ever forget uncle James poppin over a little “skiff” and 5 million Lizards went shootin in every direction ... I was 6 or something so lizard and Snake hunting was the pinnacle of my life at that point Few days later I never been whooped stripped down and had my whole hide tanned simultaniassly quite like aunt Virginia did me when I didn’t listen to em’ and started knocking over the sand hills all over the yard..... we ain’t got them kinda ants in Washington Now atleast uncle James is big chillin with my Dad I think it’s bout time I make my way down there and see who/ what I got for roots there before we end up joining them too.... I’m not even sure who I remember , I think. Andy or buddy... I can’t say for sure but this is Mitchell , Johnnys oldest boy ..
