“ Jim L taught me how to fish when I was a kid. I remember his big smile and the way he laughed, particularly when he was young. His big smile made me think of Andy Griffith's big smile. We liked to talk baseball and I remember he told me I could always remember they year he was born; it was the year Ted Williams hit 400 for the season, the last player to do so. My thoughts and prayers are with Doris and the entire family.

Doris. I am so sorry for your husbands passing. You were sure a wonderful caregiver to him. You loved & cared for him like he was a king. He was a blessed man to have you by his side. We were so fortunate to have to care for Dad until October. Bless you & your family. Kay Collins.
