“ We have just learned of our father’s death and are sorry for your loss. We never got to know him as he chose not to have contact with us after his and our mother’s divorce. Regardless, he did father us and seeing this obituary has provided us with some knowledge of his life allowing us to put our curiosity to rest and give us closure.

With sympathy, Mary Bartholomew and Millie Selma

“ Dear Barbara, We will always remember Mr. Jim's wonderful smile and sweet spirit. Our last encounter with him was when the two of you attended the piano recital. That was a special blessing to us. You both hold a special place in our hearts. God Bless you. Mary Alice and Boyd
