“ Tony and Joyce, I am so sorry for your loss. Your dad was a very special man. I can still see him walking into the church where I was married(1983), tie hanging loose, suit coat hanging over his arm and disappointment on his face because he and your mom couldn't find the church in time for the ceremony. It meant so much to me that they would drive so far to be a part of our special day. Many happy memories from our time in Camden with your family, too. Sweet, sweet memories. The both of you and all of your family are in my prayers.
