“ Jimmy today is very hard for our family. It makes it difficult with there being no place to go to pay our respects to you on your 51st Birthday. We all know how much you loved Texas. I remember when we talked on the phone you talked about coming home. We all miss you and Love you so much. We know today is difficult for Missy, Brett, & Jason. We all see how heart breaking this has been for the boys loosing their dad. For ever and a day the pain will last for us. We will keep your memory with us always and Lord knows we have so many great memories. You were the best Big brother, The best Uncle, The best dad. And the best friend we all could ask for. You were taken from us way to soon. I Love you and miss you. Love Darren, Marcia, & family###imported-begin##Darren###imported-end##

“ Jimmy it is hard to believe you were taken from us so young and full of life. The closer your birthday is getting the tougher it gets. We spent so many birthdays together and Lord knows I will cherish each & everyone of them. Missy hangs on to the e-mail she got from you two days before you were taken from us. She was so used to you e-mailing her. There are so many people wanting to be there on the 11th to have their say. Mom told me she wants to be there to have her say. She deserves that. Jason & Brett are having a very tough time with all of this. Good Lord they lost their dad for christ sakes. You have so many friends and family that Love you and miss you. This is getting harder to deal with. People say it gets easier with time. I don't think I will ever get to that place where it gets easier for me. And that keeps you with me. It has not been that long since you were taken from us so tragically and I can not say Goodbye. I Love You and Miss You Big Brother. Love Darren & Marcia###imported-begin##Darren & Marcia###imported-end##

My sister Jen is not doing well and I'm scared for her. It gets worst and worst for her everyday.. I'm going to go be with her on the 6th so that the person that took you from us has to look at us and listen to us what type of man that she took from us.. We will always hold a candle in the Light of your heart... I'll see you at the crossroad... I love you . Kisses###imported-begin##Serena loves Jim###imported-end##

“ My big brother Jimmy, this was a very difficult Christmas to get through. It is so hard to believe that you are not with us anymore. All of us as a family spent our Christmas remembering all of the wonderful times we spent together. Talking about what you meant to all of us. We can not tell you good bye and we know after Dec. 21st you are watching over us. Little Darren was in a motorcylce wreck on the Highway close to home when an angry person with a lot of road rage came after him and forced him into a woman's car his head hit her trunk and Thank God he had his helmet on. They said that he was blessed with a miracle. He said he seen you and he knew you protected him. So we want to Thank you Jimmy for being his guardian angel and keeping him safe. He felt he owed a tribute to you by getting back on his bike after we lost you. But he has decided he is not going to ride again. He said he knows you kept him safe and he feels it is time to not ride again. We all have the most wonderful precious memories of you and will cherish them always. We miss you and love you and will keep you with us always. Love Marcia, & Darren###imported-begin###Marcia & Darren Robertson###imported-end##

“ I need to say goodbye to you.

I hate it. This is so unfair to us both. I must go on.... because our foster child needs me. So here I am. Surviving. Do you know that I am a shell of who you knew? I don't even know myself anymore. I need your help to let you go,I don't want to do this alone. We were a team remember? What a team, so in love. We were invincible. We had a connection most never feel. We were the lucky ones! You died and a part of me did too. Oh dearest husband and friend, in an instant you were gone. Goodbye... thank you.. for all of you....from all of me. You are the BEST part of me. I miss you love!!

I will say goodbye, but I won't forget you.##imported-begin##Jen##imported-end##

“ Jim, I will miss you more than mere words can say. You were truly the closest person to me and my only "Best Friend". Our friendship and trust grew through over 24 yrs spent together. Your caring and loving way you approached life was something I will always remember. We stayed in touch in spite of the distance between us and knowing you were always there for me some how made life easier to take. From the first time we met I knew you were a very special person who cared about the same things that I cared about in life. The moments we shared talking about our lives as they went on, I could always feel free about talking to only you about. We have a special bond that will always be there that only best friends can share. I have shed many tears since hearing about the accident but I know you are in God 's hands now. I will always be in my thoughts and I'll remember you Jim for the rest of my life. My prayers and sympathy go out to Jen and your family.

“ I thought I saw your face today,
in the sparkle of the morning sun.
And then I heard the angel say,
"Their work on earth is done."

I thought I heard your voice today,
then laugh your hearty laugh.
And then I heard the angel say,
"There's peace Jim one at last."

I thought I felt your touch today,
in the breeze that rustled by.
And then I heard the angel say,
"The spirit never dies."

I thought I saw my broken heart,
in the crescent of the moon.
And then I heard the angel say,
"The Lord is coming soon."

I thought that you had left me,
for the stars so far above.
And then I heard the angel say,
"They left you with their love."

I thought that I would miss you so,
and never find my way.
And then I heard the angel say,
"They're with you every day."
"The sun, the wind, the moon, the stars,
will forever be around,
reminding you of the love you shared,
and the peace they've finally found.

Brother Jim we had many laughs and I will keep on laughing from the memories we have shared. My family is so broken as well I know that Jen is. I can't think that you are gone from us. I hate coming out of my house because I stare down the street where you and Jen used to live. I still see you working in the yard or in the garage. Man bud I'm glad I'm not their because when you left I saw a tear but it was from joy. I never want to see you resting. I love you man and as I read you have touched so many hearts. “ "Soul Set Free"
By: Vincent A Elizondo

*Some people make the world special, just by being here
Jim, now your gone, bringing down a painful tear*

*But if my tears could build a road, memories build a lane
I'd be right up there w/ you, Jim, and bring you home again
No farewell words were spoken no time to say goodbye
Gone before we knew it and only God knows why*

*Memories I will cherish, to my heart I will hold close God knew what he was doing when it was you he chose his plans for you are greater, greater than we all know
But my Heart, will still ache, and tears continue to flow*

*For now, the end of day has come, the sun has set for thee and all my tears have dried, for now your soul set free
You were like a brother man, more than just a friend
I Love you Jim, I Love you Jen, a Poem and a Prayer, Amen*

“ Jimmy, Darren & I have tried to find the right words. We just keep thinking this is Just a dream. Your brother & I have been married for over 31 yrs. and never have I seen him so Heart Broken. He can't believe he has lost his brother. Darren & I were talking about the time you rented the special Red Cordoba for Missy and we all went ice skating, We had such a wonderful time and will cherish the memory always. I will always remember the day you took the Volkswagen thing and took all of the doors and everything off of it and you took me to Dallas to have lunch with Darren. We got so many looks and laughs and we had a blast. You were always so wonderful to me and never had a rude thing to say. I will cherish the memories of all of our children playing together and Loving their Uncle Jimmy they said was Ice Man from Top Gun. You loved that. Darren & I will keep you in our hearts and will hang on to the memories. We miss you and will continue to miss you. Darren heard a song by Blake Shelton called I want to go home. He said that is the perfect song for Jimmy. There is a poem that my daughter in law Holly gave me when Moma passed away,I don't know who the author is. I hope it will help in some small way. We Love you Jimmy, Love Marcia & Darren. Poem- How Long will the pain last? A broken hearted mourner asked me. "All the rest of your life. "I have to answer truthfully,. We never quite forget. No matter how many years pass, we remember. The loss of a loved one is like a major operation. Part of us is removed, and we have a scar for the rest of our lives.As years go by, we manage. There are things to do, people to care for tasks that call for full attention. But the pain is still there, not far below the surface. We see a face that looks familiar, hear a voice that echoes, see a photograph in someones album, see a landscape that once we saw together, and it seems as though a knife were in the wound again. But not so painfully. And mixed with joy, too. Because remembering a happy time is not all sorrow, it brings back happiness with it. How long will the pain last? All the rest of your life. But the things to remember is that not only the pain will last, but the blessed memories as well. Tears are proof of life. The more love, the more tears. If this be true, then how could we ever ask that the pain cease altogether. For then the memory of love would go with it. The pain of grief is the price we pay for love. “ This song sums up what I want to say "One Sweet Day" Sorry, I never told you, all I wanted to say.

*Now it's too late to hold you. '
Cause you've flown away, so far away.*

*Never, Had I imagined, yeah, living without your smile.
Feelin' and knowing you hear me.
It keeps me alive. Alive!*

*And I know you're shining down on me from Heaven,
Like so many friends we've lost along the way,
And I know eventually we'll be together.
One sweet day.*

Picture a little scene from Heaven.

*Darling, I never showed you.
Assumed you'd always be there.
I took your presence for granted.
But I always cared
And I miss the love we shared.*

*And I know you're shining down on me from Heaven.
Like so many friends we've lost along the way.
And I know eventually we'll be together.
One sweet day.*

Picture a little scene from Heaven.

Although, the sun will never shine the same, I'll always look to a brighter day.

*Yeah, Lord, I know, when I lay me down to sleep,
You'll always listen, as I pray!*

*And I know you're shining down on me from Heaven,
Like so many friends we've lost along the way,
And I know eventually we'll be together.
One sweet day.*

*“ Hi Uncle Jim, mom told me that you are gone. I can't understand why. I did not get to tell you about what's been going with me. We would have long talks, you would take me in auntie jens car we would drive so fast that the car read on the screen you are going to fast. We rebuilt my bike. Uncle I wished that you would have never moved because we lost touch. I know you would call but it was not the same. I'm 16 now and I play Jv football. I'm a linebacker and I'm dating the head cheerleader. I miss you uncle Jim, My grandpa is up there hang out with him he's a lot like you.
I love you Sean##imported-begin##Sean R Ochoa##imported-end##*

“ Jim where can I start I'm still in shock, I wish I could have been there. You were my best friend, a hero to my son you were a father that he could not have. When we look at you there was always a smile on your face. Jim God had better plans for you. I hope that you shine the light on my sister Jen as you have done so. To all the family I truly am sorry we lost a good man. Don't shed tears of sadness. But rejoice he's going home. Last memory I can share with everyone is when we had parties you would give all the local kids here in Palmdale rides on your motorcycle. I LOVE YOU JIM God knows I do. Rest my best friend.##imported-begin##Serena Ochoa##imported-end##
