Mrs. Brenda and Carrie,
I hate that I missed so much of the last few years due to distance. I can hear Mr. James now "now Kira!", lol. He was so funny. I was always so excited for him to light his pipe and sit on the swing and just enjoy being around him. I miss you all. Much love!

“ On my trips to Milledgeville, I'd usually see Uncle James on the front porch taking a few puffs of his pipe. Sometimes just sitting in the chair watching as the cars pass. Every chance I got, we would stop. Even if it was for a short visit. If I seen him outside, I'd always blow my horn and wave. I Love him so much. We will miss him so much. I'm positive my daddy met him at the gates of heaven. There will be lots of tears that will fall. He will be dearly missed. We Love you Uncle James. 😭

“ I HAVE ALWAYS LOVED UNCLE JAMES - HIS LAUGH AND THE GOOD SMELL OF HIS PIPE! I REMEMBER WHEN HE AND CARRIE CAME TO SEE US WHEN CHASTITY WAS BORN. HE HELD HER AND TALKED TO HER WITH A BIG SMILE! HE WAS LOVING MY FIRST BORN LIKE A NATURAL GRANDFATHER. IT MEANT SO MUCH TO ME BECAUSE MY FATHER DIED WHEN I WAS ONLY 18 YRS OLD. I KNOW THE PAIN THAT HIS CHILDREN ARE FEELING, BUT HE IS REJOICING AND GLORIFYING OUR LORD WITH A NEW, GLORIFIED BODY. I PRAY FOR GOD TO DISPATCH HIS MINISTERING ANGELS TO WRAP YOU ALL IN GOD'S LOVE! JOHNNY AND I LOVE AND PRAY FOR THE ENTIRE FAMILY.

“ I will never forget working with Uncle James on his drill rig. He worked my tail off for about six months! This experience working with him, left me knowing just how much he cared for his wife, family and what pride he took in his job. I enjoyed working with Uncle James just as much as he loved smoking his pipe! Uncle James will always be a great memory of mine. Troy Stapleton
