“ I worked with Skeeter throughout his career with the prison system; however, the fondest memories I have are when we would hurry home from work and head to the hay fields. We called ourselves the "HHA" (hay haulers association). We worked so hard but had so much fun. James, (Skeeter) was a giant among men. I know he loved his family more than life. He also use to love going on horse trails rides and would travel everywhere to do so. Skeeter, I know your family love you and theres a high void in "Wall Ville". To know you was to know you. I was so privileged to know you and have you in my life.

“ Skeeter and I go way back to our early childhood days, even when Wesley was still here, and their parents both alive and their sister. I hate to see this. Spent much time at their home. I worked with Skeeter in Forensic Services. I was a new grad and a teenager when I started there. Skeeter always kept a lookout for me and I learned so much from him. He talked about Rita often and I always felt like I knew her. So Rita, may his memory be a blessing because you were his. RIP Skeeter. I was lucky to know you.
