“ My prayers goes out to the family, Mr. James was the best neighbor you could ever ask for. He and Alice was so funny together and his kindness, I could never repay for all he did to help her. But that was his nature to help people and oh how he could make you laugh. God bless the family during this time. Love, Kay

“ To know Hambone was to love him. He never met a stranger, if he didn't consider you a friend, it's only because he didn't know you. I shared many laughs with him, he did love to joke around. He will be missed by everyone that knew him!

Del, Sonya, Donna and family. You're all in my thoughts and my prayers you have my heartfelt condolences.
