“ He was a great man who enjoyed life. He loved his children and family with his whole heart! He went way too soon! He will be missed terribly by us all 😞 we love you James Kevin Smiley Wright and will see you again!

“ His family used to live next door to my grandparents in Soperton. We played together as kids and we were schoolmates briefly before I moved away. I was blessed to be able to speak with him a few years ago. He would come up to me before I could recognize him, shake my hand, and chat. He was a great childhood friend.
