

Jane Daley Wiggins

June 16, 1925 - May 16, 2024

Our beloved mother, Ethel Jane Daley Wiggins, sadly passed away May 16, 2024 at Green Acres Health and Rehabilitation in Milledgeville, Georgia where she has resided since December 2020.

Jane was born on June 16, 1925 in Ridgefield Park, New Jersey. Her mother was Ethel Willingham Daley and Father Francis Leidy Daley. She graduated from Girls High School in Atlanta, Georgia.

She married Edward Livingston Wiggins on June 28, 1946 at All Saints Episcopal Church in Atlanta. They spent most of their married life in Decatur, Georgia and were the owners of Decatur Plumbing Company for many years. It later became Aqua Plumbing and the company was moved to Chamblee, Georgia. Ed died April 2001.

After a few years, Jane moved to independent living at Clairmont Place also in Decatur. This was a home for eleven wonderful years. Jane made friends there and loved playing bridge. Unfortunately she later had to move into assisted living at Benton House in Stockbridge, Georgia.

Jane is survived by her children Edward Marcus Wiggins, wife Barbara, and Nancy Wiggins Brown, husband Hugh. She has four grandchildren, eight great grandchildren and one great-great grandchild.

The family wishes to thank the staff at Green Acres as well as Affinis Hospice for all of their love and care for our Mother.

A private graveside service will be held June 8, 2024 in West View Cemetery, Atlanta, Georgia.

“ My deepest condolences and prayers are with the family(Ms. Nancy). I am a former employee at green acres last day 3/7/24, and she is one of my favorite and most memorable resident I took care of there. She was so kind, sweet, funny, and was very knowledgeable at her tender age. I colored two coloring pages just for her and she always kept them on her tv stand. Many memories with her. Take your rest and fly high Mrs. Wiggins (MY “Mrs. Wiggy”, “Betty boop!”)🥹💔
