Wow me at loss of words. You know we know God has her now. I was touch in many ways by her over the year's. I 'd never thought God's touchdown club until I met her. Let her get a chance to praise God and boom a touchdown. She always raise her hand's to God's glory. I now as I've gotten wiser I see the value and the value importance of both the worshipping and the ferless praise God always recieve from her. What a witness. I can hear her now Jimmy can you look at this. I love the whole family and I know show is with jesus! Some questions but not I. God has got this for her the family and all that choose the touchdown to worship God. God peace to the family. Amen

Janice, as I called her "Sister" was my dear close friend. We've had a friendship of almost 30 years. We had so much in common. We sang together in church choir, she loved music, we went dancing, eat out, to the movies. We laughed so hard when we were together. I feel we are still connected, ironically, she passed on my birthday and will be buried on hers.
She's now in heaven with Jesus, where she wanted to be for so long. I love you my sweet friend, you'll always be in my heart. Until I see you again !
