*I will always remember this lady. Janice would always say that she didn't know signs, when I would sign to her and I'd have to explain that, I'd known, for years, that, when a person is signing, it makes speechreading easier. (I know, from experience).
Janice was a true friend and, like so many others, I will miss her.*

My prayer is that the memories of his wonderful lady, will help the family, through their loss.

“ So so sorry to see Janice has passed away for Carrie, Jackie, Joni and the rest of the family but not for her for I'm sure she is in Jesus' arms. I remember her as one of the Cox girls who attended and was heavily engaged at the original Hardwick Christian Church. Her bright smile was always contagious!!
