“ To my Dear friend that I thought the world of, I use to drive Mr. Davis to his work sites and helped him every way I could. We went out to dinner often. His dearly departed wife Marge as I called her was one of my best friends, I helped her in a lot of ways from canning pears, picking vegetables to driving her to appointments, she was a blessing to be around. May Jay RIP in the loving arms of Jesus and now he is reunited with all his loved ones that has departed this life. Prayers go out to the family and friends and to Shirley Crisp that took him in and nurtured him until she could do it no longer. God Bless you Shirley.
