“ Johnny,
I want you to know that you had a really wonderful wife and I could have never made it without her encouragement all those 16 years ago...I hate to tell Brandon, but I know he loved her so much...and she and you both were very good to him and I thank you from the bottom of my heart for that...if you need anything, just let me know...again, I am so so sorry, she was an amazing woman. Love,

“ Hey Johnny,
The Memorial Service was beautiful. I am glad I got the courage to say what I had to say although I remember very little of it. I have a Memorial Page for Jeannie at <http://eileenmcadams.freewebspace.com/>
Hope it will brighten your day.
Gonna miss my friend - who's gonna call me for weather reports. ??
Call me if you need me.
Love you friend Eileen##imported-begin##Eileen##imported-end##

“ I was glad when I got to see Jeannie on my birthday this last year. I got to sit and talk about what we both loved, guns. We sat for hours talking about hunting and just target practice. I will miss her phone calls to check and make sure that I am doing good at work and at school. She treated me like I was her own kid. I will miss her dearly.##imported-begin##Dara Hill##imported-end##

“ Jeannie was not only an accomplished writer, she was family. She helped me launch my writing career with encouragement and late night calls just to "jaw" and swap ideas. I'll miss these late calls and the "tail kickins" when I got discouraged.##imported-begin##Lonnie Magee##imported-end##

“ As I sat quietly, expecting to enjoy a second cup of coffee and read the newspaper, the telephone rang. It was Mary Purcell calling to tell me the sad news that Jeannie had passed away.

Jeannie was a remarkable woman. Each of us who claimed her as a friend knew her in our own special way. She was unique and our world is diminished by her parting from us.

My deepest condolences to John and all of Jeannie's family.##imported-begin##Geri Taran##imported-end##

“ Jeannie: Remember the pact that we had to share this with the other; therefore, I now share this with you and the others who loved you and will think, "this is so like Jeannie." Our epitaph reads:

My ambition in life is not to arrive at my grave safe and well preserved but to slide in sideways worn out and decrepit, shouting, "Holy Shit! What a ride."

Dear friend, I say again, "What a ride we have had." I love you... and even death cannot take that away.

Go rest now. I'll see you when my "ride" is over.##imported-begin##Mary Purcell##imported-end##
