“ Karen,

So sorry to hear about your dad's passing. I remember like it was yesterday when you and I and Ronda were at your house in New Baltimore looking at the pet raccoon. I wanted you to take it out of its cage but you would not. Your dad must have somehow figured out what was going on because he poked his head out the door and said in a stern voice, "Karen, you kids get away from that cage now. I don't want anyone getting bit by that animal." That was that.

Anyway, my condolences to you and your family on this great loss.

“ You are unforgettable Grandpa Jerome. You are unforgettable because your son-in-law said to me when we dropped off your grandson, Bob, and Nick, at your farm many years ago "be careful of the wild dogs about a mile before you get to their place. Keep moving if you see them." We did and dropped off Bob and Nick safely and soundly. You will be missed.##imported-begin##Shawn Johnson##imported-end##

“ Dear Aunt Dot and all cousins,

Our love and prayers are with you, as is our gratitude for your strength, compassion, love, and loyalty to my beloved Uncle Jerome. Please know our thoughts are with you as we give thanks for Uncle Jerome and his life in God's grace as it continues ever forward. With love and prayers to you for comfort and reprieve, togetherness, kinship, and prevailing joy in God's love for us all. We wish we could attend in person. We will be taking time in remembrance and celebration in Michigan for Uncle Jerome, especially on Monday.

Love, Jeana (Schotthoefer) and Daniel Elmore, Erik, Colin, and Bridget###imported-begin##Jeana and Daniel Elmore###imported-end##
