“ Jerry was a one shot deal. Like the saying "what comes up, comes out". He was very well spoken on his opinions. That's why we understood each other so well. Jerry was a kindred soul with a big heart for people and life. The times I would see him around town he would greet me like it was my first visit to Milledgeville even though we had known each other for well over 20 years. Jerry was a good man. Go rest well my friend, you have friends and family waiting on you. Love to all the family. Sending peace, blessings and comfort.

“ To all of the Family, Loved ones, Friends and all who were blessed to have known Jerry, Please accept our sincerest condolences and deepest sympathies on your loss. Jerry was everything that we knew and loved about Milledgeville-compassionate to a fault, loving beyond unconditional, a memory so vast that he NEVER forgot your name, made you feel so incredibly special that you never left his presence without a smile on your face. He was the epitome of a Steel Magnolia- an exquisite heart encased in a beautiful vessel that always reached out and embraced people as he did life, with magnanimous love, humor, and sincerity. We are going to miss him dearly, as Milledgeville has lost one of its brightest and shimmering souls.
