“ Miss Pauline, Buzz, David, Lynn, and Family
It is with sadness that I offer my most sincere condolences for the passing of Jerry. I will have the family in my thoughts and Prayers. I always considered Jerry to be a true friend, a follow firefighter, and a mentor. He always had a good outlook on life, loved to laugh and loved to make others laugh. I will always remember his antics, practical jokes, and, lightheartedness, but he had the ability to be very serious and very talented when needed, he enjoyed having the ability to help his community and fellow man in their most dire times of need. He also helped me to understand how fragile life is, and to make the most of each passing day. I will always cherish the memories of time spent with him. At a time like this, words can never completely say how one feels, Rest in peace Chief, with no more pain and suffering, I will Miss you my Ole Friend!##imported-begin##Ricky Smith##imported-end##
