“ Mr. Wolfe will be greatly missed by so many. I met him 5 years ago when I started working for the Jet on Irwinton Rd. He'd always ask me "When are you going with me to have that steak dinner?" We'd both laugh and he would blush telling me "You know I'm just joking." He always knew how to make you smile no matter how bad your day was going. The day that one of the gas pumps got hit by a car was a day that God was really watching out for Mr. Wolfe. He had just pulled away from the pump and parked at the front of the store when a vehicle came speeding across the road and slammed into the gas pump. I was the only one in the store. Shaken up and crying I went outside after doing what had to be done and the first thing that he said to me was "God watched out for us." He knew that it scared me to death. I thought alot of Mr. Wolfe. Always smiling. Always kindhearted. Rest in peace Mr. Wolfe. You will be missed.

“ Mike, Edwin and all like you we are missing (Uncle) Jerry. Woodsman, huntsman, fisherman, father, uncle, brother, son, grandpa, great grandpa, friend. That man cannot be replaced. He is loved by so many, and he shared his life with so many. He helped so many of us so many times, giving thoughtful advice to us rambunctious kids freely and leaving us rolling on the floor many, many more times. We will miss him. I hope you are comforted knowing he is in very good company right now. Sending a hug and much love to each of you. Not much words can say. I'm here for you - you call any time.

“ I met Mr. Jerry while attending Georgia College, living in the apartment next to the Moore's Funeral Home. He knocked on my door to tell me that he had placed a parking ticket on my car because I was parked in the funeral home's parking lot. By the way, there was no other place to park and there was no funeral, which I explained to him. After I finished explaining, he looked at me and asked me if I was a Young. Shocked at the question, I said, "yes", hesitantly. Come to find out, he was a good friend of my aunt, Betty Young, and knew my whole family in Washington, GA. I saw him many times after that day and it was always a joy to see him. My prayers are with his family.

“ When I joined the police department in 1994, Jerry took me under his wing and made me feel at home. He was my friend, mentor and brother. I will miss him terribly. Even the way he'd grab me by the chest hairs and walk me to his office to hang out. 😊 Good bye my friend.
