

Jesse Wall

March 22, 1936 - February 12, 2017

Mr. Jesse Edmund Wall, 80, passed away on Sunday, February 12, 2017. Funeral services will be conducted at 3 PM on Friday, February 17, 2017 in the Chapel of Williams Funeral Home of Milledgeville. Interment will follow in Heritage Memorial Park.

The family will receive friends at Williams Funeral Home on Thursday, February 16, from 5 PM until 7 PM.

Mr. Wall was a native of Jasper County and grew up in Milledgeville. He was the son of the late Wesley Edmund and Callie Jones Wall. Jesse was a lover of gospel music and had the best bass voice in the south. He sang with JD Sumner and was a founding member of Kindred. He worked for Craig Masee Realty and was a member of Pathfinders Christian Church.

He is survived by his wife, Chris Morgan Wall of Milledgeville; son, Ed (Debbie) Wall of Atlanta; grandchildren, Ellen Wall of Atlanta, and Merritt Wall of Clarkesville; great-grandchild, Lily Wall; brother, Bill Wall of Milledgeville; and his furry babies, DoeDoe, Sugar and Cissy.

Flowers are accepted and for those who wish, memorial contributions may be made to Animal Rescue Foundation of Milledgeville.

“ Prayers are lifted for you, Chris. You and Jesse were my first friends when I came to Milledgeville. You have both been very special people in my life. May God comfort you at this time of grief, especially in knowing that Jesse is singing bass with the angels now in God's heavenly choir. Love you, sweet friend. Please don't hesitate to call on me if I can do anything for you.

“ *Do not stand at my grave and weep
I am not there. I do not sleep
I am the thousand winds that blow
I am the diamond glints on snow
I am the sunlight on ripened grain
I am the gentle autumn rain
When you waken in the mornings hush
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of gentle birds in circling flight
I am the soft star that shines at night
Do not stand at my grave and cry-
I am not there I did not die ..*
