“ Dear Kenny and family....I am so sorry for your loss. I loved Jewell....(and cousin Charlie). Worked with her at CSH and we had so many, many long talks together while working at Med/Surg. She took such good care of hubby there. She had a heart of Gold. My heart aches for you and my prayers are for you all...that God will keep you wrapped tightly in His arms of love and bring you the strength and courage you need now and forever.

“ My deepest sympathy to Kristi, Gaye and your family. Your mother was a very special lady and I thought very fondly of her, I think Losing your mom is the hardest thing you can ever go through. I know I lost mine 5 years ago and I will say you won't get over it but you will adapt. Take comfort as I did that she is no longer suffering and now has a brand new healthy body and is with Charlie again! My thoughts and prayers are with you at this most difficult time.
