“ Jim was a great friend and mentor. He never failed to be honest, yet he was always kind and generous. I am privileged to have known Jim. Carolyn and the rest of the family - I am thinking of you with sympathy and compassion.

“ To Mrs. Mills and all of your family:

Our hearts are full of love and sympathy for you all. May you find peace and comfort in being together, and in sharing the many feelings and memories that make the true wealth of a family.

Knowing Carolyne, Cathy and Coco, we see the indisputable evidence of a job so well done by loving and nurturing parents. Having a father like Mr. Mills most certainly blesses the lives of his daughters, even still. His wisdom and wit informed each in a wonderful and special way. So, there must be a veritable fount of riches to share that will soothe and heal your path. He is ever there, with you always.

Love, Jeannine Digel, Deidre Digel, Valsin Luquet, Jim, Karla, Jay and Ashlee Digel.

“ My thoughts and prayers go out to the whole Mills family. I personally knew Jim for over 24 years. I was fortunate enough to meet his family once I moved into the same neighborhood in 1989. Jim and Carolyne and their daughters shared many family memories with my family throughout the years. We celebrated many birthdays, ballet recitals graduations, weddings, Christmas's & the births of our grandchildren. I will always keep all the joyous memories of these past years, close to my heart. RIP Jim, you will be dearly missed
