“ There are many things I could say about Pete. He had a way of telling stories that would make you question things you'd never thought of. He was very funny and in the blink of an eye show his anger if he believed something wasn't right. If you looked deeper he was a kind and gentle person. He will be missed but always remembered. RIP my friend. My deepest sympathy to the family.##imported-begin##Jill Bridges##imported-end##

“ I met Jimmy 20+ years ago. He was always a respectful and kind gentleman who always offered a firm handshake and kind word. He's been out to my house on several occasions when he was working nearby and we shared a glass of tea or coca cola and talked until he had to return to his job. I last saw Jimmy about 6 months ago, walking down North Columbia as he usually did, and we caught up on the news. Jimmy shared his belief in Jesus once, so I feel comfortable he is his place in heaven. I'll miss out conversations and will I'll always remember our friendship.##imported-begin##Wallace R Moore##imported-end##
