“ The first time I met Aunt Joan, I must have been about 10. We were sitting outside on my Grandmother's porch in Macon when I met her, and she looked at Shirley and said "Ain't he pretty." ;-) She would call me every now and then and ask how things are in California and say she was going to come see me "one of these days." She lived in high heel shoes and always said "A lady never comes out of her heels." She was true beauty inside and out,,,,, and she knew me long before I knew me. Love you Aunt Joan. Thanks for being part of my "family." Billy
